

“one by one we could all make a difference”

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

The Louise Russo Youth Awards recognize youth that exemplify the 3R's – Respect, Responsibility and the Role of leadership through initiatives that reduce violence in their communities. The Award celebrates and promotes the qualities that are important in making our communities a safe place to live, learn and play.

Eligibility

Awards are open to individual youths and teams of youth across Canada between the ages of 12 to 19 presently enrolled in an Elementary or Secondary School Program. All applicants must be a Canadian Citizen or landed immigrant.

Selection Criteria

Award recipients are selected for their dedication and commitment in making a difference in their Schools or Community by modeling the 3R's – Respect, Responsibility and the Role of leadership in helping to end or curb the violence. They are involved in leading a project that has made a change in the community, have shown their capability to lead and inspire others and demonstrate respect for others and responsibility in their schools and/or community.

Application Submission

The submission should include the completed application and two letters of endorsement. Other materials will not be reviewed by the judges but may be used for promoting and representing recipients. Materials included in the submission will NOT be returned.
